The Municipal Music Symphony Band will offer, on Sunday, June 11, at 9:00 pm, on the beach of Las Canteras, at the height of the Plaza Saulo Torón, on the occasion of the Founding Festivals.

The group will climb the stage located in the sand area of the beach of Las Canteras to offer a festive concert to the public of all ages that can follow their melodies enjoying their repertoire on the sand or from the promenade.

The Picnic swing, dedicated to American music, jazz and swing, with themes by Benny Goodman, Duke Ellington, Glen Miller or Louis Prima, offers the opportunity to offer a magical evening in the light of the almost full moon (fills the night of 9). It will be the first time that the band in addition to bringing the music to ground level, proposes to celebrate a picnic while listening to the concert.

Together with the group, José Alberto Medina, director and creator of the cultural center Fábrica La Isleta, will perform as guest artist. The Grancanarian musician after developing his profession in Barcelona for 16 years, returned and promoted, two ago, this project that bets to offer a space in which different artists can share and develop their projects. It will also feature the performance of the soloists Morgan Hernández in the saxophone, Marcos Pulido on the trumpet or the youngest Marta Bautista on the double bass.

Alongside this large cast is the name of Errol Woiski, of Dutch origin and settled in Barcelona, professor of jazz singing for more than twenty years and author of the book Manual for singers.

Prior to this performance, at 20:00 hours, a group of students from the island cultural center will offer the concert 'El Combo de Fábrica La Isleta' which will show the talent of new Canarian values of modern music.
